RE: Cashier

Dear Hiring Manager,

Please accept this letter as an expression of my interest in the Cashier position. I am a highly motivated and progress-focused Cashier with a long-standing background in this industry. With a track record of initiative and dependability, I have devised strategic initiatives which I believe will prove valuable to Any.

Throughout the course of my career, I have perfected my merchandising and cash handling abilities. I am a capable and consistent problem-solver skilled at prioritizing and managing projects with proficiency.

In my previous role, I contributed motivation, problem-solving, and cashiering toward team efforts and business improvements. I am progressive minded and in tune with new developments in my field. I have proven to be effective and collaborative with strong planning talents. I enjoy collective brainstorming sessions which all me to coordinate activities to achieve a common goal.

You may notice a gap in my employment while reviewing my resume. During this period, I elected to take a leave from the workforce in order to go back to school. The time that I was able to commit to my education has been invaluable to my professional growth, and I am eager to re-enter the professional sphere and apply my newfound qualifications and knowledge to the job.

Please take a moment to review my attached resume and credentials. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to speak with you regarding my candidacy.

Thank you for your consideration.

I am available for day or night shifts, depending on your specific needs. In either case, I am sure that my experience and skills will be a useful resource for your company.

I am willing to relocate for the right job, but due to the distance, I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss my qualifications for this position over the Email.

Sincerely,

Romjan
